Maintaining Certification

To maintain Certification, every Certified Facilitator is required to:

- Apprentice for each ITW Telecourse you wish to offer and do not currently offer.
- once approved as a Trainer, offer a minimum of three Telecourses (eighteen sessions) every two years.
- accept up to four prepaid Candidates into your Telecourse (in partnership with the ITW).
- complete a minimum of one One-for-One cycle, every two years.
- serve a minimum of 24 hours on the Do The Work Helpline every year.

Certifications are valid for one year from the date of Certification, and are renewable in two year intervals.

Notes on Training for Telecourses

Telecourses will be offered by Certified Facilitators who:

- have taken all of the five required ITW Telecourses
- have Apprenticed to be a Trainer for the Telecourses they wish to offer

If you have not taken all the ITW Telecourses, you'll need to participate (as a paying participant) in one of the courses and then train for that Telecourse (as a paying participant).

How To Set-Up Your Training

Contact the CF giving the Telecourse and request to Apprentice with them. Your Apprenticeship will be evaluated, and when approved, you will be able to start offering that Telecourse.

** Please note that Certification Requirements listed here are subject to change during the course of a Candidate's enrollment in the Certification Program. Any changes made to Certification Requirements apply to all Candidates enrolled in the program.
